FOREWORD

Harmony, value, perspective, texture, line, and volume are among the many different facets which must be considered in the elements of good design. These different facets can be compared to school life itself, which becomes interwoven, forming one central pattern of design. In these pages we tried to design the central pattern of Highland.

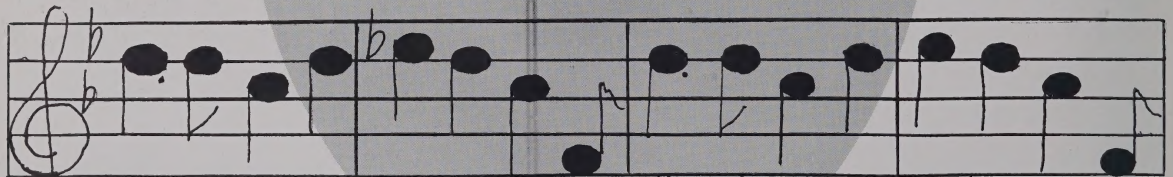

ALMA MATER

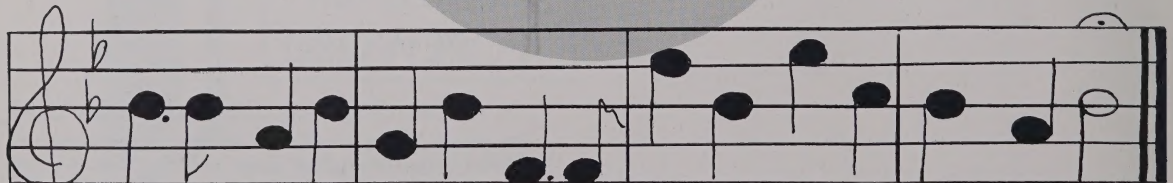

Oh Highland High School Now To Thee We Sing Our Song Of Loy-al-ty. We

Sing Thy Glory And Thy Fame All Praises To Thy Honored Name.

Come And Join Us While We Sing We'll Make The Nearby Hillsides Ring. Our Faith In Thee Will Never Die We'll Always Love Thee Highland High.

BOARD MAKES DECISIONS

The Highland Board of Education handles such important tasks as hiring new teachers, selecting new textbooks, and deciding school policies. They regulate salary scales and govern tax funds for new buildings, repairs, and new equipment needed by our schools.

Mrs. Elsie Hummel, Vice-President; Mrs. Howard E. Cartwright, Mrs. Evelyn Brunskill, clerk; Mr. William H. Kelly, President; Mr. L. O. Vermillion, Superintendent; Mr. Glenn D. Kaufman; Mr. Alva G. Donkin.

SCHOOL BOARD AND ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATION

Lewin O. Vermillion Superintendent

Mr. Lewin O. Vermillion is the superintendent of the Highland Local Schools. He is responsible for the efficient and smooth-running school system. It is his main function to continually improve the educational advantages at Highland.

Mr. Richard W. Chaffee is the principal of our high school. He is constantly working to better the school and to help the students with their work and recreation.

Richard W. Chaffee Principal

FACULTY

"Now you students . . ."

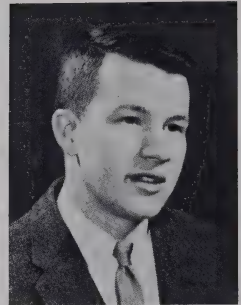

Mr. Dave Beckman graduated from Baldwin Wallace with a B.A. in Physical Education. He teaches Biology, boys' physical education classes, and Sophomore boys' health. He is our football and track coach.

Mr. Tom Brenner is a graduate of Kent State University from which he received a B.S. in Education. Mr. Brenner teaches plane geometry and general math. He coaches the J.V.'s and golf. He really has no pet peeve because he said nothing ever really bothers him a lot.

"Find something to do."

"Don't kiss the note Good-bye."

Mr. Lester Eckart received a Bachelor's Degree from Baldwin Wallace and his Master's Degree at the University of Michigan. He directs the band, both marching and concert. Loud commercials are his pet peeve.

Mrs. Lefa Gorslin received a B.S. degree from Olivet College and a masters degree from the University of Illinois. She teaches typing and Shorthand I and II. Her pet peeve is people who ask questions about something you've just finished explaining.

"Land sakes, child."

"The bell has rung."

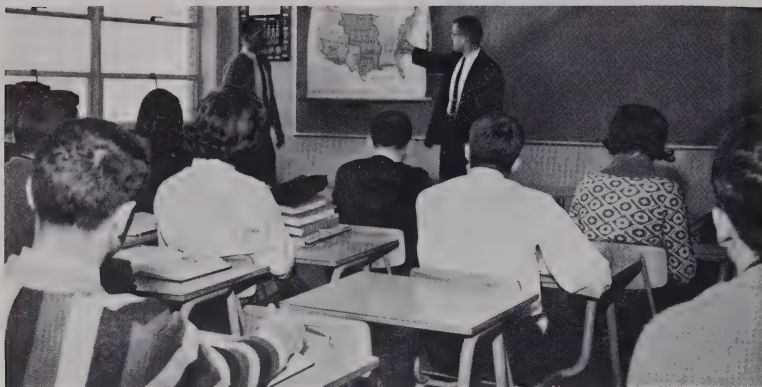

Mrs. Jill Heath is a graduate of Otterbein College from which she received a B.A. in Education. She teaches all Sophomore English. Her pet peeve is people who talk when someone else is talking.

Mr. Al Harmon received a B.S. in Education from Kent State University. He teaches driver training and manual Training. His pet peeve is irresponsibility.

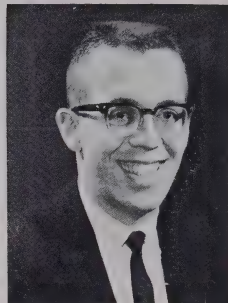

"Either shape up or ship out!"

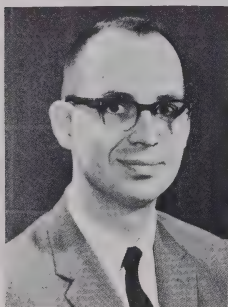

Mr. Karl Haerr received a B.A. in Education from Baldwin Wallace College. He teaches consumer living, American History and physical education. His pet peeve is students who don't support school functions.

"So who rattled your cage."

"If you can't stand to look at my face, look at my hands."

Mr. Richard Herold received a B.S. in Education from Ashland College. He directs chorus and girls and boys' glee. Talking is Herold's pet peeve.

Mr. Albert Kahl received a B. S. in Education from Kent State University. He teaches world history classes. He is also an advisor to the chapter of the National Honor Society. His pet peeve is people who ask if he has graded papers they just handed in five minutes ago.

"Pipe Down."

"Shut up!"

Mr. Martin Kemp received a B.S. in Education and is a graduate of Ashland College. He teaches Book-keeping I, Office Practice, General Business. His pet peeve is the Beetles.

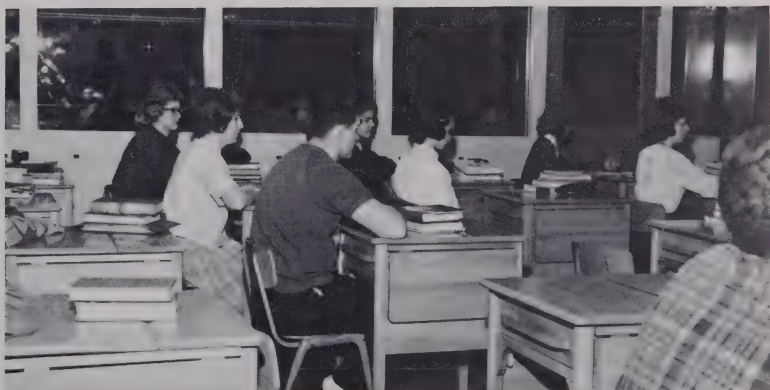

Mrs. Margie Lee received a B.S. in Education from Kent State University. She teaches English I and English II. Her pet peeve is people who think that the world owes them a living.

"Quit reading between the lines."

"May I have your attention please. This is your class captain speaking."

Mrs. Mary Lou Ludwig graduated from Western Reserve University with a B.A. in Education. Here at Highland she teaches English I, IV, and Speech. Her pet peeve is people who ask about her pet peeve.

"Most assuredly."

Mr. Robert McCaslin attended Ohio State University. He teaches Mechanical drawing. Kids who take the teachers for granted are his pet peeve.

Mrs. Beverly Melrose is a graduate of Kent State from which she received a B. S. in Education. Mrs. Melrose's pet peeve is people that talk before they think.

"Quit killing time."

"Do you own work. Make your own mistakes."

Mrs. Jean Myers received a B. S. in Education and is a graduate of Kent State University. She teaches Spanish I and II and Typing I. Her pet peeve is people who don't proofread their letters in typing class.

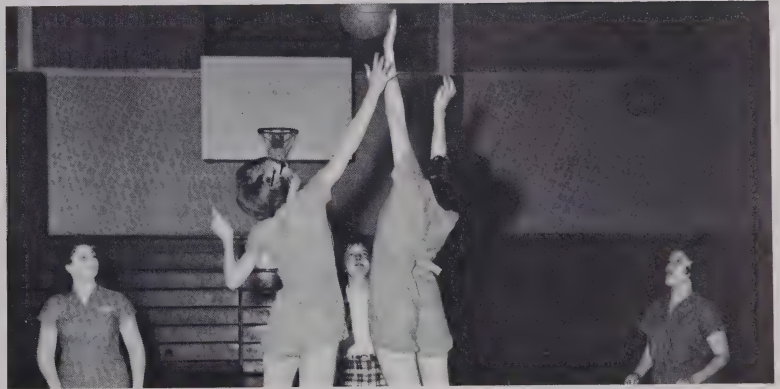

Mrs. Julia Northey received a B.A. in Education and is a graduate of Wheaton College. Mrs. Northey is the instructor of Latin I and II. Her pet peeve is listening to students' excuses about work not being done.

"Are you ready to listen now?"

"Get in your squads."

Miss Karen Phillips received a B.A. from Baldwin Wallace. She instructs all girls physical education classes and sophomore girls health classes. Her pet peeve is students who don't think.

Mrs. Mary Ryan graduated from Baldwin Wallace from which she received a B.S. in Education. She is the instructor of Home Economics I, II, III, and IV. Her pet peeve is students who aren't curious or informed.

"Well, girls!"

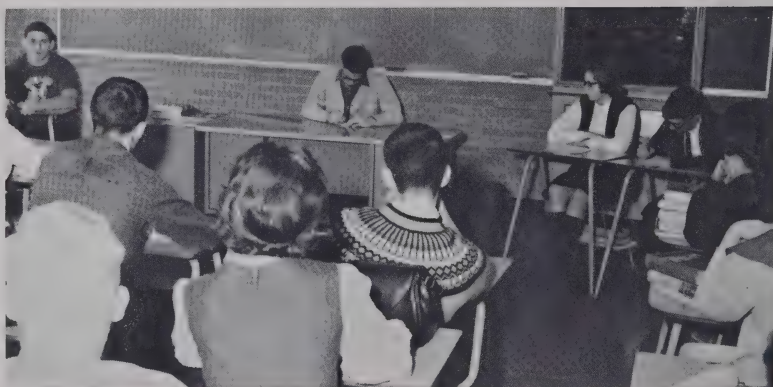

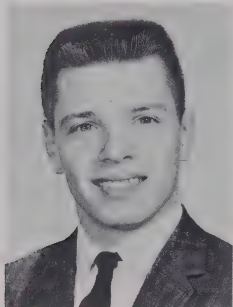

Mr. Al Schleider received a B. A. degree in Fine and Prof. Arts and is a graduate of Kent State University. He teaches English III and American History. Mr. Schleider said he didn't have a pet peeve.

"Don't use any old cliches."

"Be quiet and listen to those announcements."

Mr. Jerry Sigrist received a Bachelor of Science in education from Ashland College. He teaches American Government, Sociology. His pet peeve is trying to walk down the hall between classes.

Mrs. Margaret South received an B. A. in History and a M. A. in Library Science. She graduated from West Virginia University. Her pet peeve is people who don't behave in the library.

"Where are you boys from."

"Turn around for the film strip."

Mr. Richard Tanner received a Bachelor of Science Degree from Ohio University. He teaches General Science. His pet peeve is students who are continually sick.

Mr. Robert Vitthner received a B. S. in Education and is a graduate of Ohio University. He teaches Algebra I and II, Solid Geometry and Trig. His pet peeve is people who don't follow directions.

"Chalk up another Brownie point."

"Get out a half a sheet of paper."

Mrs. Rowlina Weigle received a B. A. from Western Reserve and a Science Comprehensive from Baldwin Wallace. She teaches Physics and Chemistry. Her pet peeve is students who say "Do we have to?"

Mrs. Webster's efficiency in the office does not go unnoticed by students in need of her help. Although she may be very busy she is always willing to fulfill a request.

OFFICE STAFF

Student announcers, Mary Massarelli and Pat Preuter, inform the students of upcoming events.

J. Slovinsky, M. Dusek, B. Becker, M. Massarelli, P. Preuter, and L. Tucker assist Mrs. Webster, the school secretary, with her office duties.

GUIDANCE

Should I go to college? If I don't go to college, what else is there to do? How can I find out about the various kinds of training and opportunities available? If you would like some help in finding the answers to these questions and many others, then you should make an appointment to come into the guidance office. Mrs. Myers is the guidance counselor at the high school. She is pictured here talking with Joyce Ardy.

LIBRARIANS

Many students help Mrs. South in the library. They assist by labeling and filing books. These students are: V. Toth,

I. Dyke, C. Eads, B. Wilson, B. Warner, S. Miller, C. Paisley, C. Senz, L. Hirsch and S. Josh.

The job of planning, preparing, and serving the nutritious meals at Highland is handled by Mrs. Kraus, the head cook. Her assistants are Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Stein, and Mrs. St. Clair.

The perpetual job of keeping Highland an attractive, well-kept school is done by our custodians. They are O. Shirey, A. Baker, H. Brunskill.

COOKS AND CUSTODIANS

Some students assist the cooks with the kitchen chores. They are as follows: D.

Brown, J. Erclauz, J. Hayden, R. Rush, B. Bowman.

STUDENT LIFE

DESIGN IN STUDENT LIFE

As we look around the school many facets of design can be found in our student life. . .

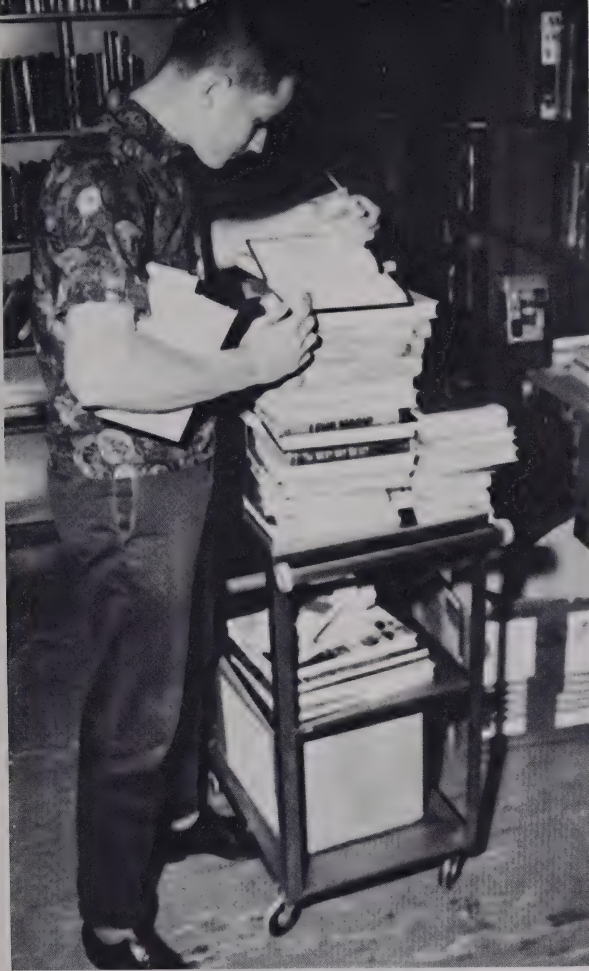

Perspective. . . Knowledge is not the only quality imparted to the students of Highland. The ability to see the future in perspective is also given.

Line. . . The activity bus has contributed a great deal to the student life at Highland. This is an example of the line always waiting for the bus.

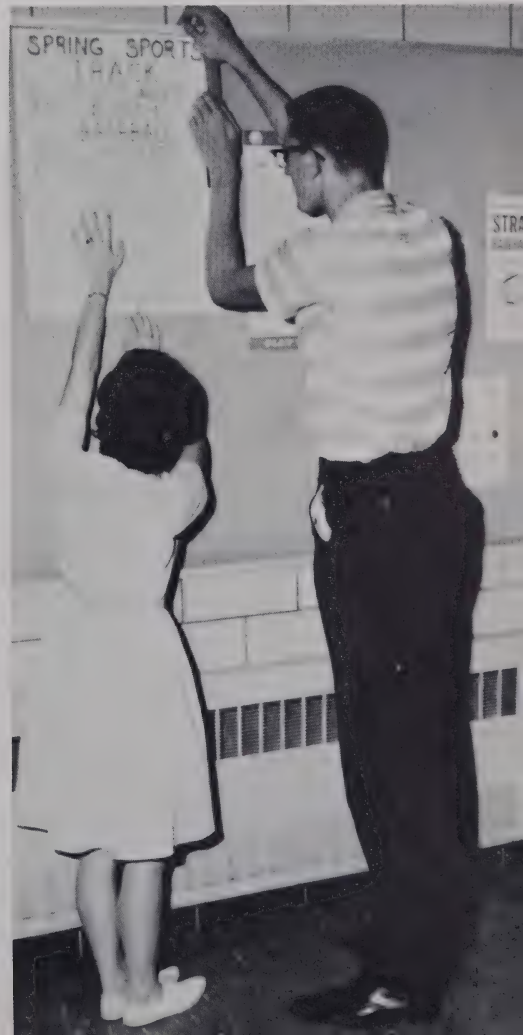

Volume. . . Homework is given in volumes, but this is ridiculous!!

Intensity. . . The intensity to excel drives many people to great things.

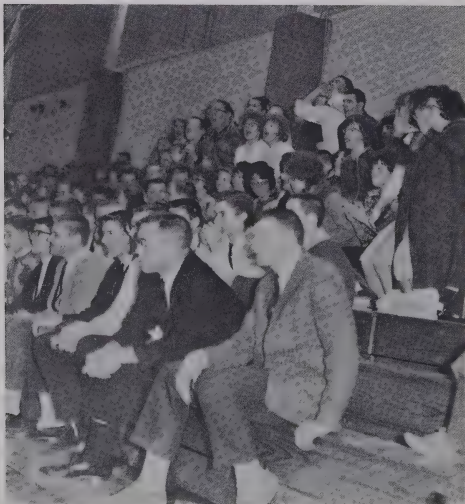

Contrast. . . is an important part of everyone's life, especially in a school with students as versatile as Highland's.

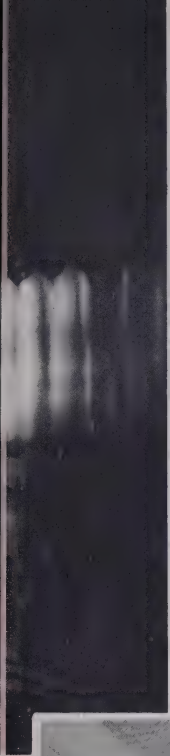

Harmony. . . is obtained through understanding.

Mass. . . The mass of pupils in our student body can at times create a state of mass confusion. Here they work together through great enthusiasm to help make our pep meetings a success.

Form. . . Lives as well as bowls are molded in this high school. Skills begin to take form in many areas and departments within these walls.

Harmony. . .The rings symbolize a type of harmony within a class, and the co-operation needed to maintain it.

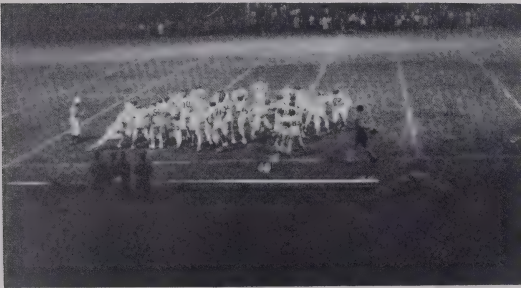

Intensity. . .motivates people to do their best.

Line. . .A new line of cheerleaders added variation and humor to the pep meetings.

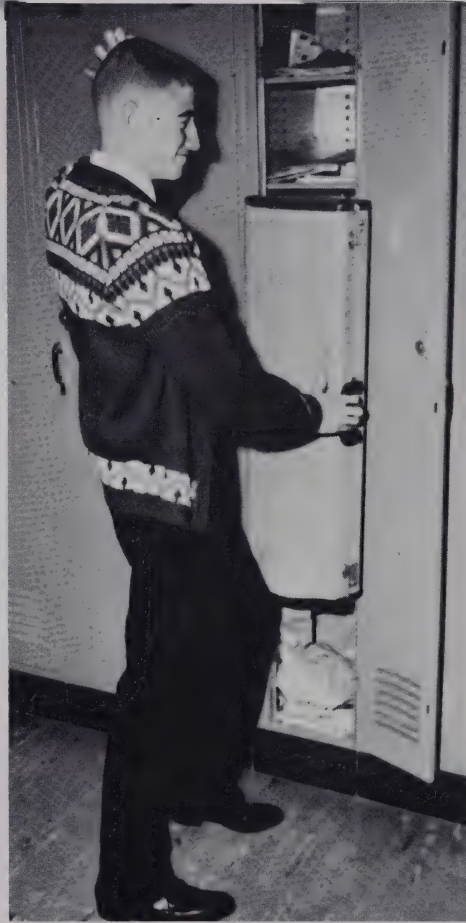

Repetition. . .By repeating a line in a design it helps to hold it together. Practice, practice, and more practice, though it may be tiring, helps to make Baccalaureate and Commencement a success.

Mass. . .No matter how large the players or how large the team it is the team spirit and mass co-operation that makes a winning team.

Variety. . .The curriculum here at Highland contains a variety of subjects. The courses within this curriculum also cover a variety of areas. In this American History class the Roaring "20's" comes to life by modeling an oldtime bathing suit.

STUDENT COUNCIL ELECTIONS

The effect of the campaigns will be shown as the students voice their choice at lunchtime.

Students always eagerly await the Student Council Elections. At this time the Senior Government classes become the campaign managers for the candidates running for office. Skits, songs, and other fun, plus the candidates' speeches all add to the program.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is always working to improve student-faculty relations. This year it outlined a program whereby the student body can better understand the school policy. One of the group's many activities was the Spring Sock Hop, featuring the Marvaders.

The band is always ready to lend spirit at the pep meetings.

PEP MEETINGS SERVE TO "PEP UP" THE HORNETS.

School spirit and class competition created an aura of enthusiasm to rouse the Hornets before each game. The cheerleaders, the band, and the skits added to these rallies.

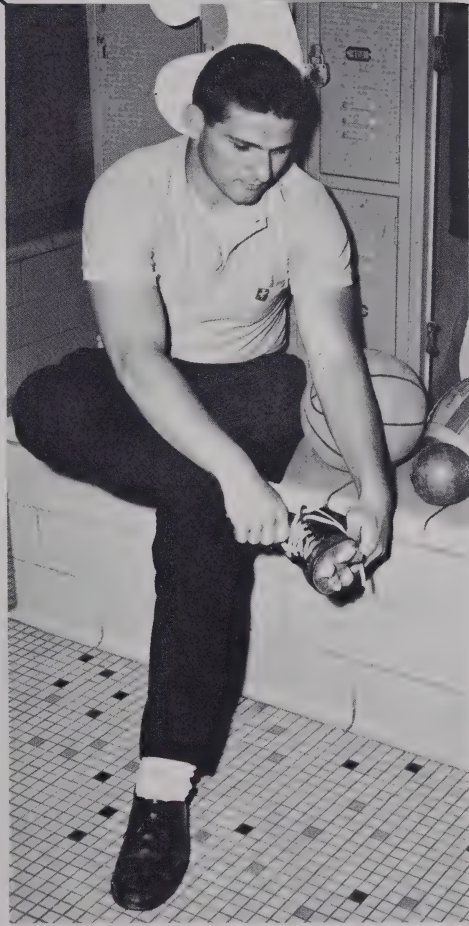

Some new "cheerleaders" help out at one of the rallies during the basketball season. They were: Glenna Jones, Thomasina Berg, Georgianna Edwards and Theodora Swain.

Some of the "football team" warming up before a rough game. (This was one of the games in which Highland triumphed.) 'Bronco' Hayden; 'Truck'

Wiszt; 'Penny the Toe' Brazik; 'Brutal' Bailey and 'Ape' Repp.

PLAYERS GAIN EXPERIENCE

Highland's basketball team entered the season with high hopes and a great deal of strenuous practice behind them. Their hopes of a victorious season were not attained on the score board, but a successful season was accomplished in team spirit, cooperation, and student backing. Their experience and effort will add to the varsity squad next year.

Kneeling: Winland, G. Kramer, M. Grindle, and D. Reardon. Back Row: R. Bentley, C. Codding, R. Kelley, L. Brenstuhl, B. Swank, and Coach Brenner.

“APRIL IN PARIS”

1964

Juniors hold registration for the "Big Day".

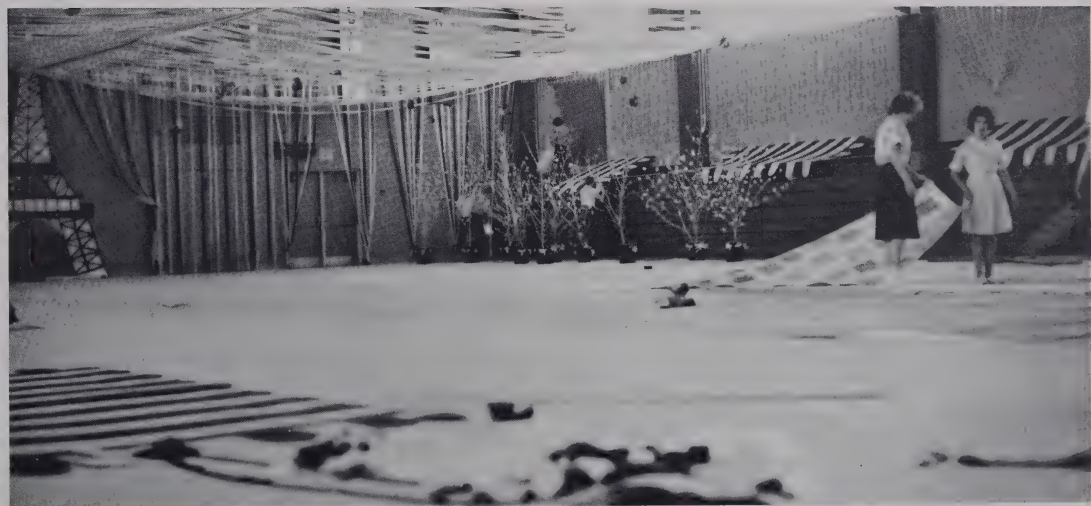

The Juniors worked hard to create a French illusion. This year's prom was one of the best.

Diane Duncan, Bob Hale, and Sally Johnson are busily working on stage to complete the Arch of Triumph.

The gym nearing completion, the Juniors are ready to add final touches.

Swimming was enjoyed at the Akron Jewish Center.

"April In Paris" was the theme of this year's Junior-Senior Prom. The school gym was transformed in "Evening in Paris," for the banquet and the dancing was held at the Wedgewood Country Club. The afternoon activities included bowling, swimming and miniature golf.

Many of the juniors and seniors had fun bowling.

Dr. Harvey spoke at the banquet and was truly enjoyed by everyone.

Lestie Tucker helps Bob Kelly adjust his cap as the time for the Commencement program draws near.

The Commencement program marks both a beginning and an end for this year's seniors. It marks the beginning of a new life in an adult world. It also marks the end of a four-year high school career. This year Dr. Norman P. Auburn, President of Akron University, presented the speech "You can If You Will".

The Class of '64' is together for one last time as students of Highland High School.

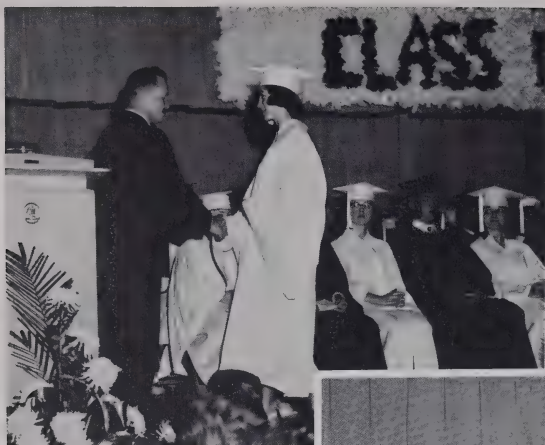

Virginia Pellett receives her diploma from Mr. Kelly.

(At the left) Some of the seniors participated in the graduation program. Fred Crutchfield, recipient of the John Philip Sousa award, plays his trombone solo. (Above) The moment has arrived. The turning of the tassel completes the achievements of four years of work and laughter.

At the left Jacquie Tramonete, and at the bottom Patti Prueter received awards for their outstanding work in school activities. At the right Glen Jones received the Charles Hardman award for his many achievements in sports.

Barbara Girman was valedictorian.

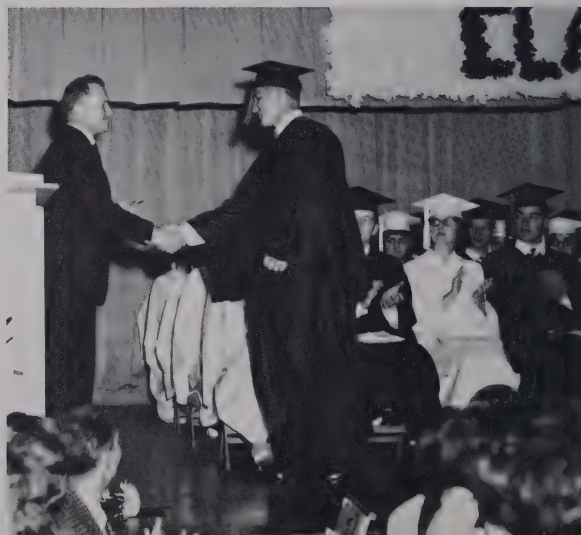

Cheri Watson was the salutatorian.

AWARDS RECEIVED BY SENIORS

Mary Kammer received the Betty Crocker Award for her efforts in the field of Home Economics.

These students won awards in the district contest.

To a guy who I have got to know
real well in our class.
We really had a blast didn't we? I got Luck in what ever you do, and always stay as sweet as you are Jim anything I could possibly say here ~~is~~ would be repetitions of all the other things ~~written~~ written here. Therefore I will just say I hope we can stay fast friends always (at least for a few more years) if we stay in chorus this year I hope we can have as much fun as in other years. "Good Luck".

Aren't you ~~glad~~ glad I didn't write any pro-Goldwater Sigs?

Ken Sandoz

P.S.
My writing is BAdd, I hop
you don't mind

(Don't look now, but I did anyway on page 118.)

have, the
To one of the nicest guys there are. Always remember the good times we've had in band in the last few years. I hope you have a tremendous Senior year and that all friendship may last
during the ones that come.
Keep smiling, and success
will be yours.
Kathy

is a pretty writer, neat dancer, and delightful goof. When you become an architect and I get good and rich, I'll have you design my dream house. You classmate "65"

Kathy Henry
(Her)

To Dave —

I guy with whom I've been stuck in many art classes with. I'm glad - how else would I have learned how to produce community paintings and "junk" art shows. What a ponis.

Another thing I'll never forget is "A. G.'s" history class. Remember when he sat on the nail.

I could write on and on about a whole bunch of things just to fill up this whole page. And that's exactly what I am going to ~~of~~ do.

you have a terrific sense of humor and a wonderful personality and a great talent for breaking up an art class. you do pretty well in study halls too. Mrs. Ludwig may think we'll help her keep her sanity in eighth period study hall - but she doesn't know.

I'd better start a new paragraph because my writing is beginning to go down hill.

I'd better end this long autograph ~~before~~ I have to fill up two pages.

The very best of luck to you always. I hope we can always be good friends.

Kathy Thompson

P.S. Remember - Lose with Lyndon.

Be good.

Dearest Dannie!
(How's that!)

Your one of the sweetest, nicest, and nuttiest kids
I know! Remember quartet and R.F.! We've had fun and I hope we'll always be great friends

Be good
Penny

I expect I should try to write a long speech, but due to the fact that I'm extremely clumsy I won't.

First (can'tcha tell ~~there's~~ there's gonna be a visit) Your a good artist. I realize that you know it, but I thought I'd tell you anyway.

Second, I think that between us, we oughta out beat any other art department in the contests.

Third, between us, Mrs Melrose ought to be assured of the loss of her sanity before this year is out. Too bad we're not in the same class so we could conspire together.

Now, I must conclude by saying that you a great guy and that I have liked knowing you very much.
At least try to be good and behave, but it means the loss of a laugh or a friend.
I give you permission to be very bad.

God Bless you and luck tell forever,

Jan

Ave,
 To a real sweet guy who I have known since 4th grade. I wish you
 the best of luck always
 And may your every dream come true. I'll never forget our wild Pezga Parties we have had.
 I'll miss you always.
 Friends forever.

I have, I guess you already know how much a wonderful person you are. I tell you that you are the best friend
 I have. I tell you that you are the best friend I have.
 I tell you that you are the best friend I have. I tell you that you are the best friend
 I have. I tell you that you are the best friend I have.
